BAILY, Middlebury, Vt., Dec. 15, 1883.
Local News.
—Dancing school to-night—third lesson.
—Geo. F. Bell was in town over Christmas. He is clerking in Burlington.
—W. H. Tucker, state agent of the Associated Press, was in town last week.
—Jas. B. O'Neill returned Wednesday from Boston where he has been visiting for a week.
—Tuesday, the 26th, was St. Stephen's day and the event was commemorated by services at St. Stephen's church.
—The Undergraduate is out and contains, among other good things, a neat little poem from the pen of W. W. Gay.
—The Vt. Dairymen's Association are to hold their 14th annual convention at Burlington the 14th inst.
—June Severance, who has been on the sick list for a few weeks, suffering with jaundice, is around again.
—A good many people came from abroad to spend the holidays with their relatives and friends in town.
—The little folks had a supper and a good time at the Congregational church last Friday afternoon.
—Some of the boys took their respective best girls out riding Christmas day, and some didn't, they either having been left on the team or on the girl.
—E. Henry Powell, state auditor, was in town Wednesday evening and Thursday for the purpose of auditing the accounts of the justices of the peace.
—The annual meeting of the stockholders of Middlebury National Bank was held Jan. 9, 1884, at the Bank building in Middlebury.

The boys say that "Frank," whose other name is synonymous with Woods, took out himself a better half last Friday night. He "Merriest" a great deal.
—Trade on Saturday was brisk, but dwindled down in the evening about to the usual amount. Christmas goods sold well during the week.
—Charles D. Hay and wife have sold their farm on the other side of Chipman hill to E. G. Hunt of New Haven. There are over 130 acres in the farm.
—Christmas day Mr. F. A. Bond made a large number of children happy by taking them out for a sleigh-ride, which they enjoyed most heartily.
—Charles Hyde, who is working in Higgins' drug store in Rutland, made a flying visit to his family this week. He returned to Rutland to-day.
—The case of Albert Fletcher against Charles Wooster is set for a hearing today. Much interest is manifested in the case by the public, and we understand that there will be a trial by jury.
—Sutherland Falls sent up a deputation to our Christmas gathering, Henry Donnelly and Olney Comstock. Donnelly occupies a responsible position there.
—Walter Waugh is another of the boys who thought of "Home, sweet home," as he is here for the holidays. Walter is stationed in Orange, Mass., where he is doing well.
—This week the school took a recess and the time was spent by the children in recreation. The recess gave the teachers an opportunity to attend the State Teacher's Convention at Montpelier.
—The only consistent "bolter" in this country is the college student, who bolts at every opportunity, to the great disgust of the tardy stalwart Professor. He will not "make up" either.
—Walton's Vermont Directory for 1883 is out. This publication used to be both accurate and valuable, but of late years it has degenerated. Its Middlebury Directory this year is a curiosity of omissions and inaccuracies.
—Ed McClure of Rutland, the old "vet" of the bakery was in town over Christmas, as was Tom Markock, who has for some time been working in the woolen mills at Winooski, Vt.
—The J. H. de la Hay cigarette smoking young man, lately referred to as a "predestined and preordained fool," will on the first of January, '84 "saw off," but will swear on again, as he can not avoid his destiny.
—The recent thaws have done much for the relief of those who have been suffering for water for several months past. Complaints from this source are less frequent than they were a couple of weeks ago.
—Schuman Club held their fortnightly meeting Tuesday evening at the Schuman Club house. There were thirty-five present and the exercises were interesting and instructive.
—The Cutter Marble Co. have shut down their mills for two weeks, as many of the workmen desired to take a slight vacation, and the annual meeting of the company at Boston occurs next week. There are some men still working on the quarry.
—The annual village meeting is called for the first Wednesday in January, the same being the 3rd inst., at half past one in the afternoon, for the purpose of electing village officers for the ensuing year. It is hoped every citizen will be on hand.
—Sunday night the Sunday school children of the Methodist Church had a Sunday School picnic at the depot, which was well attended and very enjoyable. The children of the same school had a supper at the church Christmas night.
—An abstract of the address of Rev. S. L. B. Spear, delivered at the Congregational Church last week Thursday evening, was found on the fourth page. It was an able address, and worthy of presentation.
—A young man or boy was put out from a freight train Monday near the Seymour street crossing. The law passed by the legislature in 1876 should be enforced. The offender loitering around the depot and jumping on trains will be in motion.
—"Happy New Year" to all our patrons, and if each of them will improve as much the coming year as will the "Register," Addison County will "do itself proud." Any man suggesting there is room for improvement should take the fighting end, is not around.
—H. M. Parker and wife, after a visit for a couple of weeks in Peacham, Vt., the home of Mr. Parker's father, were again in town this week. The children of the same school had a supper at the church Christmas night.
—Cards are out for a dance at "Pierce's" next week Tuesday. The list of dances includes a "redway" and a "military quadrille." It is presumed redway and military quadrille are in the list of dances. The participating will enjoy good music and a good supper.
—Wm. A. Newcomb and wife have purchased a piece of land in the east part of the town and have sold to Wakeman J. Mead several pieces of land which they recently got by foreclosure. Special attention given by Alphonso T. Amidon.
—Scene in Sam's barber shop: Customer in chair, whose face is nearly as smooth as a woman's. Another fellow enters, looks at the man in the chair, and remarks: "Rather a bare-faced operation shaving that man, isn't it?" By-standers laugh and the barber on the young man's face blushes very red.
—A real half-breed. There is one man in New Hampshire so stalwart that he won't even let his hair, do. (Boston Post.)
—A real half-breed. There is one man in Middlebury so independent that he scratches everybody. He is a barber.
—Ignorant or unthinking persons often stop their teams on the sidewalks of this village, thus impeding and inconveniencing the foot passengers. This is notably so in front of the Post office. It would seem that anybody but a fool would know that it was not the proper thing to stop his team on a crossing and do this. It is in fact one of the worst of the mud or snow.
—The rats and mice have lately made havoc in our copy drawer, nibbling and destroying the copy. They struck some of the "local" made a feast thereof. There is never one without the pests, and has an old gray rascal is the most solemn and serious case—tomer you ever saw. It was certainly tough on rats. This is not an advertisement.
—Joseph Battell, Esq., has been offered a lot of matter of $5000 for his stallion "Motion" by Wilson, the great Kentucky dealer in and breeder of fine blooded fast horses. Wilson has before tried to buy Motion but failed, as he did this time. It is likely, however, that Motion may be sent to Kentucky for a while, for stock purposes. Smuggler was kept about two years by Wilson in the same way.

The diphtheria scare has entirely subsided. No new cases are reported.
—The children's festival at the Pierce House, under charge of the ladies of St. Stephen's, was a very pleasant and joyous occasion to the little ones.
—That white muskrat skin in Dodge's window has attracted much attention this week. White muskrats are "scarce" than hen's teeth.
—The Middlebury Post office will be open New Years from 8 to 9:30 a. m.; 12 to 1 p. m.; and from 4 to 6 p. m. Night mails closed at 6 promptly.
—Pat McMahon came near being run away with last Saturday, but showed up again by holding on to his horse. He was driving one of Battell's spirited horses and wishing to go by a couple of teams in front of John Powers' shop he gave the word, but one of the teams in front of him turned quickly towards the center of the road and a collision was the result, over-turning Pat. He was dragged some distance, but the horse didn't get away all the same.
—Burlington and Middlebury presented quite a contrast Monday. In Burlington two police cars were running all day for the benefit of those who celebrated the day by getting drunk; in Middlebury there was no drunkenness apparent, and the day was a very quiet one. One reason is the fact that Middlebury in the last two or three years has lost quite a number of persons formerly distinguished by their disgraceful conduct on holidays.
—Frank C. Bell, one of the leading and most enterprising business men of the place, is fast gaining a wide reputation for his success in the real estate business, and is doing much for Valley Springs and the country tributary to it, bringing in settlers. He is one of those wide-awake men whose enterprise is the motive power in the wonderful development of the west, and he is just such a man as land seekers and investors are always glad to find. (Valley Springs Cor. Rock County (Minn.) Herald.)
—In our last issue was published the programme of music sung at St. Stephen's church Christmas eve and day. There was one addition to the programme Sunday night, the "Credo." It was chanted by the whole choir in unison. It was one of the most impressive things we ever heard of, and the organ grandly rounding out the harmony. The large audience was still as death. On Monday evening the music was said to be very fine, and the solos of Mr. H. S. Foot, Miss Nellie Tupper and Mr. Markand were highly spoken of. There were few choirs in the State better than St. Stephen's Christmas.
—Do you receive on New Years day? The custom of New Years' calls is in growing favor with the people of the larger towns and smaller cities, but is not followed nearly so much as formerly, in New York and other large cities. One reason is that in the cities it has been customary to place wine before the callers, and many of them, after making a large number of calls, would be a little "minky." Many ladies, seeing the evil, stopped receiving.
—By an item among the reading notices in another column it appears that Mrs. W. F. Goodrich is desirous of selling her farm situated in the south part of the town. This farm is one of the nicest in Middlebury, and is adjacent to the place where Middlebury was first settled. It is a valuable piece of property and can be purchased on easy terms.
—Dr. F. W. Halsey has leased the "Morrison house" on South Pleasant St. and will occupy it in a short time as a dwelling house. He will also move his office there with difference to the Doctor's business where his office is, as his patients will look him up or wait for him at his new office, will, however, be in as central a place as the old one, and more convenient for the doctor.
—A good story is told of the absent-mindedness of a young man living on Weybridge St. After milking his cow the other night he gave the cow the milk, and "paralyzed" his calf, and set down on the pantry shelf his milking stool and a pail of feed prepared for the "porker." His attention was called to the mistake he had made after the milk, only to find that the cow had drunk it up. When asked what he was thinking about, he said he was pondering over the problem of lighting the stove, and the milk, and blowing the organs of Middlebury by utilizing the great electric power stored up in our waterfalls. He isn't a stockholder in the Middlebury Electric Light and Power Company either.
—The business done at the Middlebury post-office during the Christmas season has been much larger than usual. Every one seemed to be getting and sending presents.
—Phelps Coolidge, whose advertisement appears in our business notices this week is a young man whose public should patronize liberally. He was the victim of a sad accident last spring at the Cutter marble quarry, by which he lost a leg, and nearly lost his life, and is therefore incapacitated for any active employment.
—The new Baptist church on Merchants Row was dedicated yesterday. Rev. H. G. DeWitt preaching an able sermon. There was a large attendance, every portion of the beautiful little church being completely filled. From the report of the treasurer it appears that the church is paid for and the society is free from debt, and is a surplus in the treasury. A collection amounting to over $200 was taken up. There was also evening service.
—All the outside work at the pulp mill is completed, and the masons were all discharged last Saturday night. It is expected that everything will be in readiness for starting up work in a few weeks. Next season the pulp company will probably build a large paper-mill, and it is also said that they intend to erect some tenement houses for the use of their employees.
—Mr. G. D. Miner, Mrs. Henry S. Foot, Mrs. Julia W. Pitts, Miss Helen M. Tupper, Miss Ella Stewart, Miss Lucia Sutton, Messrs. C. S. Murkland, W. H. Sheldon, B. F. Churchill, J. W. Pitts, John Kellogg, Samuel Sheldon, and George Howland were the singers at the Forthester's supper last Thursday eve. The programme was as follows: "Lauds," "Ocean," "Majesty," and "Shubert's" in chorus; "When the Thine is King;" solo, by C. S. Murkland; chorus, "And Lang Syne;" piano duet, Polka de Salon, by Miss Ella Stewart and Mrs. G. D. Miner; solo, "Robert, Where art thou?" by Helen M. Tupper; who responded to the encore which she received with a Scotch ballad, Mrs. G. D. Miner and Mrs. J. W. Pitts sang a duet, "The Heart's Desire;" and encore, "Dost Remember;" male quartet, "Bible Song;" by W. H. Sheldon, Ben Churchill, John Kellogg and C. S. Murkland; closing chorus, "Down on the buxantice River."

County News.
CORNALL.
Fine winter weather, with good sleighing.
—Work is lively in the swamps. Probably more timber will be handled this winter than for several seasons past.
—Mr. P. B. Warner lately butchered a beef one year and eight months old, the dressed weight of which was seven hundred and twenty-seven lbs.
—Christmas was pretty generally observed with good feeling. Schools were closed. Santa Claus visited the little folks bountifully.
—On Christmas eve Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Small received from the request of their neighbors and friends as an observance of the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage, a fine set of tableware and numerous other presents which were thankfully received.
—On Saturday evening last quite a company of young people, enjoyed a social evening at Dr. Bond's. Among the guests were Stephen M. Foote of West Point military school, and a gentleman from Hoosac Falls whose name we have not learned.
—Mr. F. Hooker in consequence of poor health, much of the request of his neighbors and townsmen, has sold his fine farm and beautiful residence, with which his family connection dates back to the early settlement of the town. The purchaser is Dr. Ward of Castleton. It is hoped however, Mr. Hooker will still remain among us.
WEYBRIDGE.
—Mr. Will W. Newton and wife were surprised on Christmas day by some fifteen or more ladies and gentlemen, headed by his venerable father and his mother, and including Mr. Newton, of Ferrisburgh. A very pleasant reunion of the family was the result, with an abundant supply of the good things of this life.
—Mr. Grant M. Sprague and Miss Lillian Sprague are home for a short time from their home at Otisville, P. Q., where he is employed by P. C. Linsley, contractor and builder of the new rail road from that place to Montreal, as private secretary and cashier. His salary is $1000 per annum. Business will necessarily make his stop here a short one. Miss Lillian has been for some years a teacher in the St. Albans high school, but has resigned her position, it is whispered by knowing ones, for a position for life in a village not far from her former home.
—The exercises at the Christmas tree at the M. E. church consisted of some fine singing, recitations, choruses, and declamations and recitations by members of the Sabbath school, both old and young, who acquitted themselves as is their wont, with great credit to themselves. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity by an appreciative audience. Two trees were erected, one on either side of the altar, which were heavily laden with a variety of articles, including by the school, under the direction of Mr. F. E. Stewart was all that could be desired. Mr. O. K. Britten's cornet accompaniment added very much to the occasion.
—On Monday evening occurred the marriage of Mrs. S. Wright's, of this place, and Mr. William Stow, son of A. J. Stow of this place, was first-class in all respects. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. J. Estes of Vergennes. The rooms were very tastefully decorated with evergreen, with an arch of the same under which the couple stood during the ceremony. The bride was in magnificent and rich. The company included chiefly of the nearer relatives. The couple took the New York express on Monday morning, and will be in position on the Central Vt. R. R. running at present from Rutland to Montreal. This will necessarily call them away from our town, which occasions much regret, as they are both very highly esteemed here.
List of presents to Mr. and Mrs. Stow: Hanging lamp, Mr. C. Wright and wife; silver pickle, Mr. N. J. Taylor and wife; fine set silver tea spoons, Mr. J. D. Dodge and wife; silver castor, Mr. A. J. Stow; silver cake basket, Mr. Osmond Fisher, Carson Fisher and Mr. Carlton Sprague and wife; towels and napkins, Mr. Preston Smith and wife; butter dish, D. C. Stow; silver knife and fork, Mr. D. C. Wright and wife; silver and glass berry dish, Mr. J. and L. S. S. Wright; one dozen silver knives, Mr. C. E. Crockett and wife; Crown Point, N. Y.; bed spread, Mr. A. Ferguson and wife; panel picture, Mrs. Elsie and Miss Jennie Wright; pickle castor, Hattie, Nellie and Cora Stow; towels and lace jabot, Mr. Wm. Gannett; Troy, N. Y.; silver cake basket, I. C. Edols; silver knives, Mr. E. S. Wright; $10 cash, Mr. H. Miller and wife; Troy, N. Y.; napkin ring, Clara Dodge; book, Rev. D. J. Estes; Vergennes; silver butter dish, D. C. Stow; silver pickle castor, Mr. J. W. Wyman and wife, Crown Point, N. Y.; card and cabinet album, Rev. Horace Craze and Miss Hattie Farr; melodeon, Mrs. J. D. Dodge; Troy, N. Y.; silver ornament, Miss Mary C. Miller, Troy, N. Y.; majolica butter pats, Miss M. Ella Brevoort, Crown Point, N. Y.; chromo, Fremonts Peak, Mr. S. M. Stow and wife; bed spread, Mrs. J. D. Stow; Mrs. W. Shepherd, Troy, N. Y.; panel picture, Mr. Harry and Miss Minnie Wright; pair vases, Clayton and Bert Craze; napkin ring, Miss Ida Hanks; silver castor, Mrs. C. S. Murkland; hand wrought rug, Mrs. A. S. Viall and Miss Addie Barker, Crown Point, N. Y.; card receiver, Wright Ferguson; silver castor, Mrs. C. S. Murkland; picture, Mr. G. S. Clark and wife; towels, L. J. Warner; vases, Leroy M. Gage; hand glass, Chas. Parkell.
